Opportunities To Serve

❖ Cleaning Supplies Distribution takes place every second Tuesday of each month. The Grove contributes cleaning supplies to the Emory Grove Village residents from 2:00-3:00pm. Those interested in serving with these distributions should contact Sis. Ray Hopkins (301) 840-2172.

SHARE Food Program's mission is to promote healthy living and stronger communities through affordable, wholesome food. Those who are interested in receiving packages or volunteering should contact Sis. Ray Hopkins at (301) 840-2172 or Sis. Bernice Brown at (301) 972-3395. Children can earn community service hours too.

❖ Parking Ministry – Please see Bro. TomPete Stevenson if interested.

❖ Pearls4Girls is a community program offering comprehensive mentoring for at-risk pre-teen and teen girls at Redland Middle School. Interested women should join us every Wednesday at Redland MS from 3:15-4:20pm. Contact: Sis. Helene Thompson at graceandmercy916@gmail.com

❖ Prison Ministry - Every Thursday evening, The Grove's Prison Ministry visits the Montgomery County Correctional facility for the "Inside Outside Dad" program that encourages and empowers male inmates that have children. If you would like to participate, please see Bro. Wayne Cade.

❖ "In His Name" Dance & Step Ministry – If interested in being a part of this ministry, contact Sis. Shaye Knowlton at (301) 524-6052.

❖ When you shop at AmazonSmile and choose Emory Grove as your charitable organization, the AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the price of eligible purchases to Emory Grove. All monies donated will be allocated to The Grove's Building Fund. Type <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/52-1318671>

Anyone interested in obtaining a "TLC" tote bag should contact Sis. Penny Johnson Knowles at
