

Joseph “The Minister” Flood

Joseph Flood, a native of Gaithersburg, Maryland, is the proud son of Pauline Flood and Joseph Jackson. With a legacy rooted in service and faith, Joseph has dedicated his life to empowering others and walking in purpose.

He served 13 honorable years in the United States Army as a Logistics Specialist, ensuring operational excellence and demonstrating steadfast leadership. In 2015, he graduated from Bowie State University with a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice.

Before graduating from Bowie State, Joseph became an Eagle Brother of Alpha Nu Omega Fraternity, Incorporated, where he served as the Directorate of Ministries for the Rho Chapter. His leadership within the fraternity reflected his commitment to spiritual development and community service.

His commitment to spiritual growth led him to receive his license as an ordained minister from the Word of Prayer Cultural Center in Largo, Maryland, in 2019. In 2020, he earned an Associate Degree in biblical studies from the Word of Prayer Bible Institute, further deepening his theological foundation and ministry impact.

For over 15 years, Joseph has been a driving force behind Anointed Expressionz of Mime Ministry—impacting lives across the DMV area through powerful facial expressions and movement that communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ. His ministry has created countless wound-healing experiences and drawn hearts closer to God.

Joseph is the author of Brokenness Manifests Power: A True Story from a Healed Man, a compelling memoir that chronicles his journey through pain, loss, identity struggles, and divine healing. His story inspires readers to believe in God’s redemptive power.

Joseph is a loving father of three beautiful children—Alayna, Joseph IV, and Asher.

Above all, Joseph is a man with a heart to serve. He is deeply committed to living a life of grace and love, dedicated to improving lives. He lives by the powerful quote: “Broken men can only be healed by the Savior of all men who was once broken.”* *
